MYERS' HOSTS AT YULE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Myers were hosts when they entertained at an impromptu pre-Christmas party at their home, 2064 220th st., last week. Their guests were a group of 18 young friends who came bearing Christmas gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown of Minden, Nebraska, are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Smith, and another daughter, Miss Bernice Brown.

Nadays Receive Two Unusually Fine Yule Gifts

"The best Christmas present of all arrived right on time—Christmas Eve," Mrs. John Nady of 710 Madrid ave., said in reporting she had received an air mail letter from her son, Tony, who is in the Navy in Hawaii. Tony said he was "okay" and gave his parents some graphic descriptions of the havoc wrought in the Islands by the Japanese bombers.

But that letter wasn't the only Christmas gift the Nady Seniors received. They also learned that they are to acquire a son-in-law when daughter Mary Anne announced her engagement to Fred Gahwolf of Redondo Beach. No date has been set as yet for the wedding.

Mary Anne Nady, a graduate of Torrance high school with the Class of 1932, attended a Los Angeles business college and has been employed at the National Supply Co., for the past five years. Gahwolf, son of Mrs. Lena Gahwolf of Redondo Beach, was educated in eastern schools and is also employed at the National Supply.

HAY'S VOCALISTS PRESENT RECITAL

Students of Herbert A. Hay's vocal studio at 519 South Quad, alupe, Redondo Beach, presented their annual Christmas concert recital in the Methodist church recently. The large number attracted by this affair were appreciative of the work Hay and his students are accomplishing.

As each singer was presented it seemed hard to realize that the world is in strife instead of peace and harmony. Several of the students appeared for the first time and they proved excellent trouper, along with the more advanced students.

The recitals are presented monthly by Hay. Torrance students heard during the recital were Patsy McCall, Edward McCall, Shirley McVicar, Bebe Mischeau and Irene Findley.

HELEN FLOYD TO WED LOMITAN

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Floyd of 1724 Gramercy ave., announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Maureen, to Mr. Charles C. Williams, son of Mrs. Eula Williams of 25805 Oak st., Lomita.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Miller spent Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Olson in Pasadena.

Phyllis Schultz Weds Berton Lamb Yule Night

Holiday brides include the lovely Miss Phyllis Jeanne Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glinton Schultz of 1304 Cota ave., whose marriage to Mr. Berton Lee Lamb took place at the bride's home Christmas night. The ceremony, performed by Rev. Frank C. Porter, was attended by an intimate group of relatives of the principals.

PHYLIS SCHULTZ LAMB Mr. and Mrs. are T.H.S. grads

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tailored suit with matching accessories complemented with a white orchid corsage. Miss Alene Lamb, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She also wore a blue suit and her flowers were a corsage of pink camellias. Charles C. Schultz, Jr. served as best man.

Following the ceremony a three-tiered, decorated wedding cake was cut by the bride. Mrs. Lamb graduated from Torrance high school, class of winter 1940 and from Compton Junior College, while her husband, also a Torrance high graduate, attended Santa Barbara State college. He is employed at the Robinson Cabinet Shop in Long Beach.

Following a brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will be at home at 2032 1/2 Gramercy ave.

BOOK REVIEW ON CLUB CALENDAR

Tylene McNeill of Los Angeles will be presented in a program of book reviews and discussion of current literature at the January meeting of Torrance Woman's Club Wednesday, Jan. 7. A highlight of Miss McNeill's program will be a dramatization of Joseph Kesselring's humorous play "Arsenic and Old Lace," according to Mrs. A. H. Silligo, program chairman.

Mrs. Clifford E. Ruppel, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn E. Buffington, will sing. Reservations for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon may be made with Mrs. E. M. Johnston Torrance 340-W, no later than Monday evening.

Happy New Year

Once again we extend the heartiest of New Year's greetings from the Southern California Edison Company to all the members of the Edison "family"—customers, stockholders and employees. Let us not allow the shadows of war to darken the traditional spirit of the New Year. Rather, let us all take this occasion to strengthen the ties of good fellowship and neighborliness. Let us reaffirm our faith and determination that our nation shall go forward to its greatest victory. May 1942 bring this victory and the peace that will follow! May 1942 bring happiness to each of you.
